

Student Assistant Website Development Wordpress

Are you interested in making sure that websites function optimal and look good on all devices? Do you have an eye for detail and do you have experience with building/maintaining websites in Wordpress? This might be the ideal job for you! We are looking for Students that would like to contribute to the our support website for lecturers: <https://teaching-support.tudelft.nl/>

You will be working at Teaching & Learning Support department. We answer questions from lecturers on Brightspace and other educational tooling used at the TU Delft. Our goal is to support lectures optimally in providing the best possible education. The website you will work on is the first place lecturers visit when they want information on Brightspace and other educational tooling used at the TU Delft.

Job description

- Testing, updating and installing plugins.
- Developing new functionalities on the website using PHP/JS.
- Updating lay-out of the website with CSS/HTML/JS.
- Improve the accessibility of the website.
- Writing documentation.

Job requirements

- Bachelor or Master students with at least one year ahead on the TUD.
- Experience with building websites in Wordpress.
- Experience with HTML, CSS, JS, PHP
- Accurate, flexible, able to work proactively are positively critical.
- Good communication skills in both English and Dutch.
- Availability 4 to 8 hours a week.
- Minimum of 45 ECTS obtained.

Important details

You will be appointed as student assistant at the department Teaching & Learning Services with is part of ESA (Education and Student Affairs). You will be employed through FlexDelft <https://flexdelft.nl/>. You will be working from home, either full or half days during office hours. Once we are allowed back at the office, we will work at the office in Delft. The position is temporary, starting as soon as possible.

Interested or more information?

If you have any questions about this position you can contact Mirte van Gulp via LTSO-TLS@tudelft.nl

To apply: Send an e-mail to LTSO-TLS@tudelft.nl before 31 January 2022 with in the attachment a short motivation letter and your Curriculum Vitae.