Transitional arrangement for the academic year 2023-2024. Applicants holding a valid English language certificate obtained before 1 October 2022, but less than two years old, fall under the following transitional arrangement:

Their proof of English language proficiency can be accepted if one of the following English language certificates with corresponding scores:

- TOEFL iBT certificate: a total score of at least 90 on the internet-based test. TU Delft does not accept TOEFL MyBest scores; the required scores must be obtained in one single test;
- IELTS certificate: a total score of at least 6.5 on the academic test;
- Certificate of Proficiency in English (C2) or Certificate in Advanced English (C1) (University of Cambridge).